Project Summary: The Mira Loma Landfill was operated between 1947 and 1956. Waste was brought to the site and periodically burned and covered. At the time the landfill closed, a final cover was not constructed over the landfill. In it's current state, the landfill suffers erosion from storm water run-on from adjacent hills and drains down a 30ft slope to the adjacent street. The slope adjacent to the street, was excavated in the 1960's, for a road re-alignment, including a section that was a landfilled ravine. Storm water erosion has exposed waste in the ravine.

This project proposes to re-grade the landfill for positive drainage, construct a two foot engineered fill Final Cover over the waste, and construct a drainage system to divert storm water run-on away from the landfill. To cover the waste on the slope adjacent to the road, the project proposes to excavate some material and construct an engineered fill cover over the waste. The fill cover on the slope will be keyed in at the bottom of the slope for better stability.
